Languages (Included in Humanities tuition)

Latin I: An introductory course using an inductive approach supplemented with additional grammar work.

Latin II: A continuation of Latin I, which emphasizes vocabulary and grammar knowledge while learning Latin inductively.

Greek I: This course will examine the basic parts of Greek grammar and its relationship to the English language. Students will begin reading New Testament Greek, building vocabulary, understanding New Testament word origins and definitions.

Greek II: A continuation of Greek I that will focus on reading and translating extensive portions of the New Testament, building Vocabulary, and understanding New Testament word origins and definitions.

Electives ($60/month)

Graphic Design: This is a project-based course that is production intensive focusing on providing a historical account of the school year in the form of a yearbook. Students will use teamwork to develop a layout for the Veritas yearbook, create page spreads using photography and journalism skills, and learn to use the software provided to us by the yearbook production company.

Military History: Military History of the United States will cover military actions from the landing of the first Europeans to present. The course will examine the development of American military institutions (Army, Navy, USMC, Air Force, National Guard, and Reserves) in peace and war. This course covers organizational and technological developments, changing strategic doctrines, and the nationalization and professionalization, and the degree of coordination of the armed forces. We will also explore arms control, peace movements, and anti-war protests.

World View Movie: The course will study the major worldviews in our culture, train students to discern them in movies and formulate responses. Students will study worldview articles and movie reviews from a variety of sources including Summit Ministries and Breakpoint. Students will present their own worldview articles in class.

Veritas Code of Conduct

1. Honor God, their parents, their instructors, and their fellow students according to biblical principles of conduct.
2. Act respectfully to all students, teachers, staff, and administration. Disrespect in word and/or actions will be dealt with immediately.
3. Know and comply with the Veritas dress code that has been established. Failure to comply with the VCS dress code will constitute students being asked to call their parents for appropriate clothes.
4. Arrive on time and be prepared to participate in class each week.
5. Students are expected to come prepared for class. The grade for homework not received by class time of the due date will be reduced by 50%. Students will receive a grade of zero for any work not returned by the following week.
6. If you are absent due to illness or being out of town, please know that it is your responsibility to submit all missed work within two weeks. Work submitted after two weeks will not be accepted, and the student will receive a zero for the assignments. No make-up work will be accepted at the end of the semester.
7. Be honest and original in all assignments. Plagiarism or cheating of any kind is not tolerated, and students will receive a zero on the assignment.
8. Cell phones must be turned off during the school day and out of sight. This means students may not use phones at all while on campus. This includes before and after school, during breaks, or at lunch. If a call is necessary, the student will need to receive permission from his/her teacher. In addition to phones, iPods, tablets, smart watches, and electronic toys are also prohibited at Veritas.
9. Veritas will not permit any student to speak harshly against, slander, bully, cyber bully, or threaten any other student, teacher, administrator, or the institution itself via text, video, or social media. If Veritas becomes aware of such, we will notify parents and take disciplinary action. It is not our intent to police students' electronic social lives, but when other students or parents bring these types of comments to our attention, we will not hesitate to act. The Bible says that in the multitude of words sin is not lacking, but he who restrains his lips is wise (Proverbs 19:10).

I will act with integrity in my performance in the classroom, my work at home, and in dealing with others.

Parents' statement:

In the event my child becomes ill or is injured while under the supervision of Veritas Classical Schools, I approve the school authorities taking the following steps in the following order:

1. Contact a parent or legal guardian of the student and follow his or her instruction.
2. In the event of an emergency when neither parent (or guardian) can be reached immediately, the school authorities are hereby authorized to use their best judgment in contacting a properly licensed physician or in transporting my child to the nearest hospital for consultation and/or treatment. Such transporting may be done by a school authority's vehicle or, if it be deemed wise, by ambulance.

If in the opinion of a properly licensed and practicing physician my child needs medical or surgical services that require my consent being supplied, and I cannot be reached, I hereby authorize, appoint, and empower Veritas School authorities to furnish on my behalf such written or oral consent as may be required.

Furthermore, I release Veritas Classical Schools and its authorities and representatives from any liability that might arise from the giving of such authorization; it being my desire that my child be furnished with such medical or surgical services as soon as possible after the need arises.
